

Art on the Atlanta BeltLine 2018 Exhibition

- Art on the Atlanta BeltLine Exhibition Overview
- External Exhibits
- Special Projects

BeltLine Walls

BeltLine Walls

BeltLine Walls

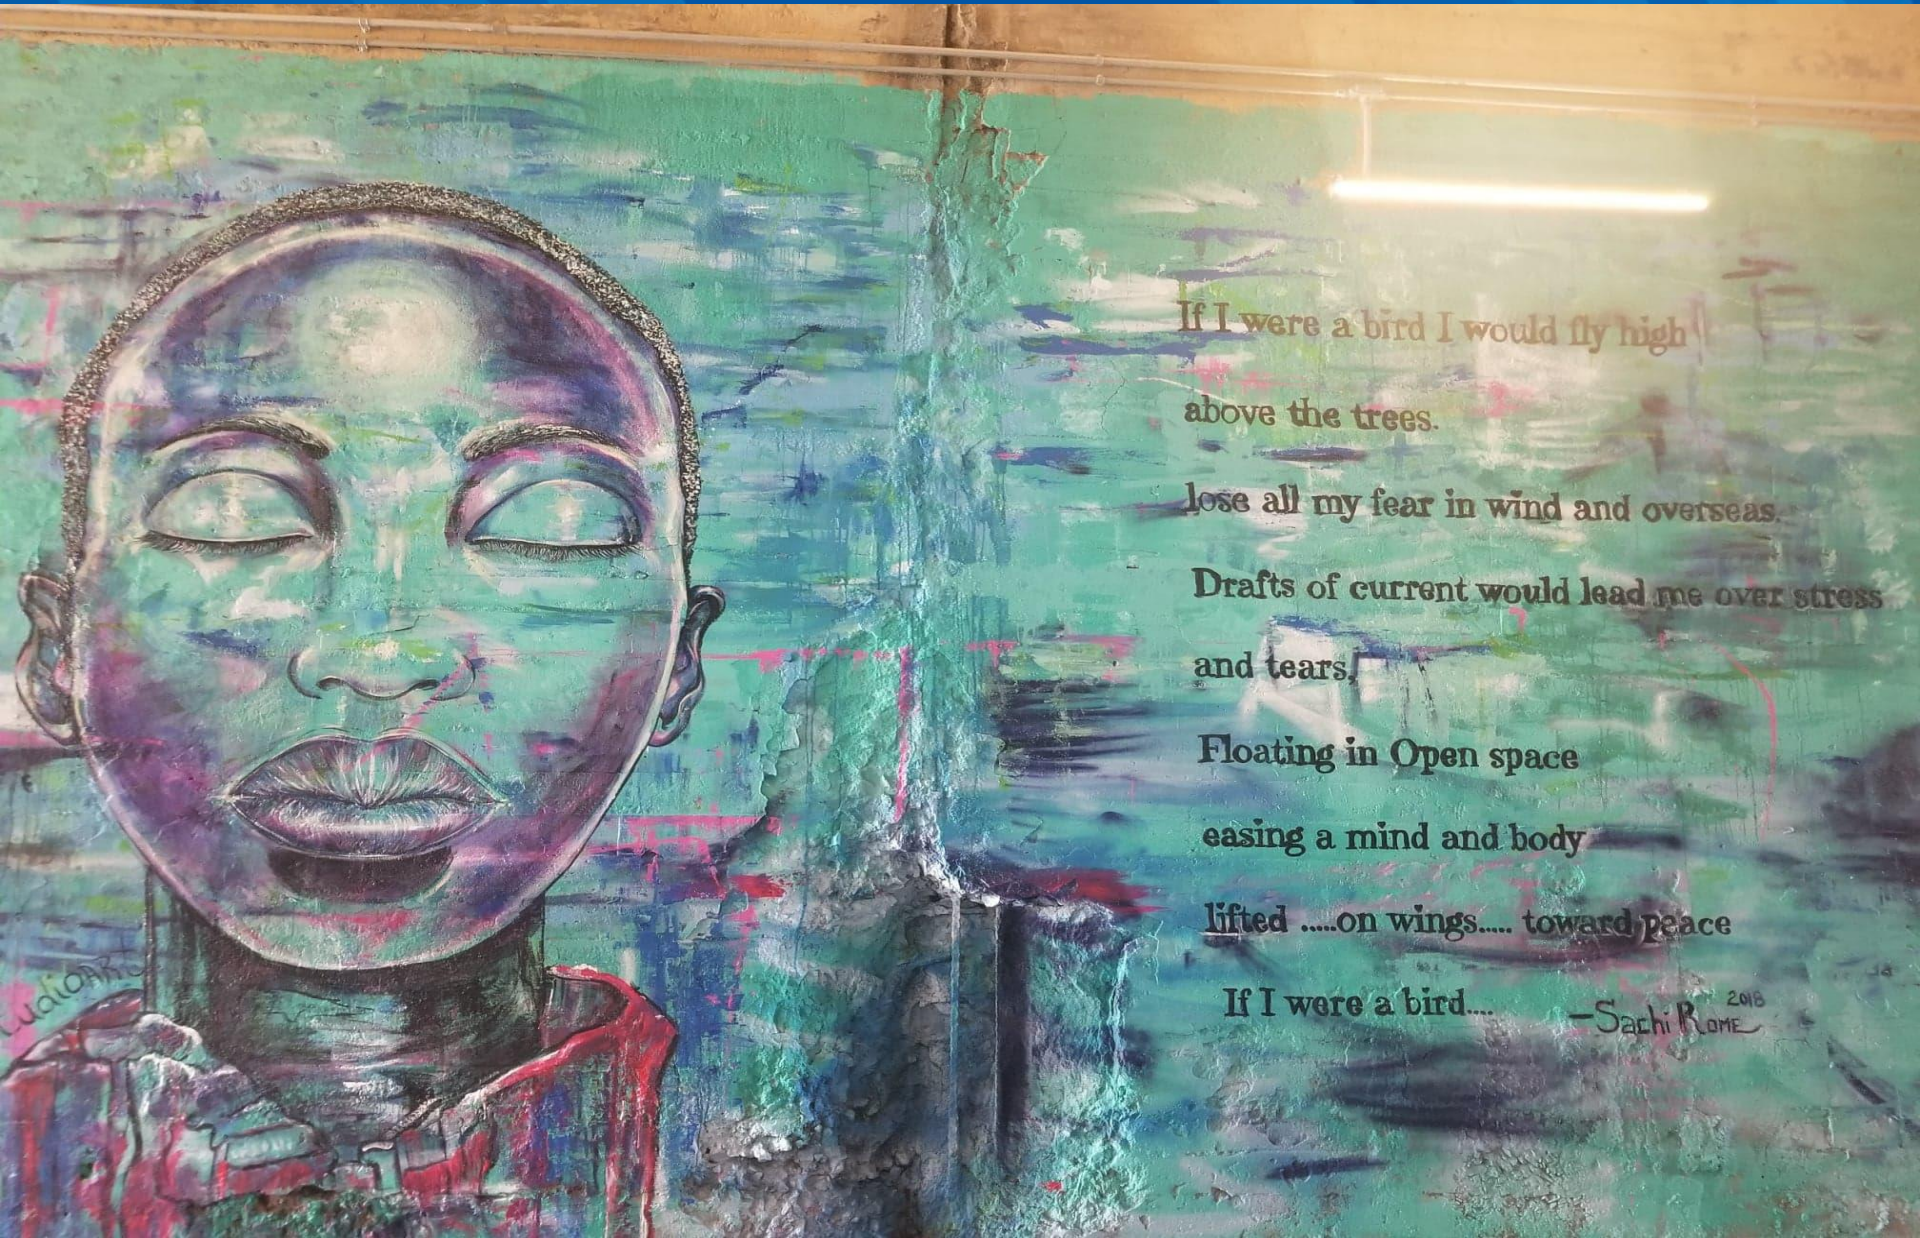

©ginaelizabethfranco

BeltLine Walls

BeltLine Walls

If I were a bird I would fly high above the trees.

I lose all my fear in wind and overseas.

Drafts of current would lead me over stress
and tears,

Floating in Open space
easing a mind and body

liftedon wings..... toward peace

If I were a bird....

-Sachi Rome 2018

BeltLine Walls: Family Paint Day

A.M.F.M. Summer Fest

Inertia: Sculpture, Mixed Media and More!

Performances

Invoke the Westside September 15th at the Holderness BeltLine Space

liquid/ky

Exquisite Corpse Cello Quartet

City Gate Dance Theatre

Performances

Lantern Parade September 22nd

Performances

HALLAH @ Ponce City Market

Eastside Trail Activation October 13th

Common Ground Collective @ Historic 4th Ward Park

Soul Food Cypher @ Historic 4th
Ward Skatepark

External Exhibits

External Exhibits

Atlanta honors the 1964 Nobel Peace Prize winner on January 27, 1965, during a reception dinner arranged by Mayor Ivan Allen and past and present Coca-Cola CEOs Robert Woodruff and J. Paul Austin at the Dinkler Plaza Hotel. Dr. King is shown receiving a crystal Steuben bowl inscribed to him as a "Citizen of Atlanta, with Respect and Admiration" from Rabbi Jacob Rothschild of The Temple. (Associated Press.)

External Exhibits

LA FEMME NOIRE

Wednesday, August 8 at 8pm
The Bakery Atlanta | 825 Warner St. SW

Upcoming Projects and Collaborators

See you on the Trail!

