The historic rail network of the Atlanta BeltLine has been traveled many times before—making way for commerce and creating opportunities for prosperity. Today it has new purpose. It is a pathway that unites our people and connects our communities, offering an even brighter, healthier future for all.
FROM OUR LEADERSHIP

The BeltLine is about the people of Atlanta. It connects them to jobs, affordable housing, as well as each other. As our city continues to navigate the impacts of a global pandemic, economic recession, and reckoning on social justice, the relevance of the Atlanta BeltLine has never been so evident.

It remains a place of respite for the people of Atlanta and an important vehicle to cultivate a more equitable community and drive economic development needed to recover from a critical downturn. When opportunity and equity converge, the future is brighter for everyone.

We are pleased to share the road the Atlanta BeltLine Partnership has taken over the past year to advance the Atlanta BeltLine vision by collaborating with a network of organizations to provide resources for our neighbors and lay the foundation for a strong future. Thank you for your commitment to the BeltLine and making Atlanta a vibrant, diverse city.

Securing and stewarding the philanthropic funds to support Atlanta BeltLine implementation, we work to realize its full vision.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Advanced the Special Service District (SSD) as a critical funding source to provide $100 million towards completion of the BeltLine trail corridor by 2030.
- Worked closely with the City of Atlanta to complete the first phase of Westside Park, which is slated to open in summer 2021 and was made possible with generous support from The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation.
- Secured a lead donation from the Georgia Power Foundation to support the Legacy Resident Retention Program to help BeltLine homeowners at risk of being displaced due to increasing property taxes.
- Honored as a recipient of the Bank of America Neighborhood Builders Program in support of the Legacy Resident Retention Program.
- Contributed philanthropic funds toward the construction of the first two segments of the Westside BeltLine Connector being delivered in partnership with the PATH Foundation.
- The first phase of the Northeast Trail was constructed with the generous in-kind contribution from Georgia Power in partnership with Atlanta BeltLine, Inc.

WHERE WE’RE GOING …
We are raising the private and philanthropic funds needed to make sure the project is completed by 2030. We will be launching the Advancing the Vision campaign, which will provide resources to construct future parks and trails, retain legacy residents, and support the Partnership’s ongoing programs.
No matter which trail neighbors walk, run, or bike, we are connecting people to the project and building public support for the BeltLine.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS
- Delivered 200 boxes to seniors and families for Washington Park Jamboree in a Box sharing food, resources, and games for people to experience the traditional festival from home.
- Worked with fitness professionals to create 17 exercise videos to provide safe, healthy options for area residents.
- Held 3 virtual races offering runners and walkers a socially distanced way to enjoy friendly competition and the opportunity to get outside.
- Logged more than 1,500 registrations for virtual Atlanta BeltLine Partnership events keeping people abreast on relevant information and ways to continue BeltLine engagement during the pandemic.

WHERE WE’RE GOING ...
The Atlanta BeltLine is a place of connection – and we will continue to help neighbors improve their quality of life by activating new and underutilized segments, deepening our outreach into underserved BeltLine communities, and mobilizing volunteers to care for and advocate on behalf of the project.
We are generating new avenues for BeltLine residents to live, work, and thrive in their historic communities.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS
- Offered 13 online workshops to help BeltLine residents stay in their homes by educating them about their rights as renters, available resources for homeowners, ways to keep their homes secure, and assistance with reducing their property tax.
- Launched the Legacy Resident Retention Program in October and approved 11 homeowners for help with increases in property taxes with 37 others pre-registered to receive aid.
- Established a new partnership with JuvoJobs, informing residents of job openings near their homes to lessen commute time and expenses.
- Began collaboration with STRIVE Atlanta that provides career training, counseling, and placement in the logistics, environmental maintenance, and business administration industries for people in BeltLine communities.

WHERE WE’RE GOING …
Opportunities for family-sustaining jobs near the BeltLine are expanding, and we are building new partnerships in different industries. We are diversifying our outreach to neighbors through communication channels with which they are comfortable. As we return to in-person programming, we are developing new ways to join legacy residents with resources to help them remain in their homes and thrive.
